A STREET FAIR

To be Given Next Summer by the Wheeling Lodge of Elks.

COUNCIL GIVES PERMISSION

For the Occupancy of Streets on the South Side-Special Railroad Rates will be Secured, and Many Thousand Visitors will be Attracted to the City-Details of the Project will now be Worked out.

Canton had a "street fair" last summer that attracted over 50,000 people to the presidential town in a week. Wheeling is to have one the coming summer which the promoters, the Wheeling lodge No. 28, B. P. O. E., hope will attract fully as many visitors to Wheeling.

The committee of the lodge which has the enterprise in charge has closed a contract for the appearance here at its fair of the Exposition Circuit Company, with its "Midway" multitude of attractive features, which are alone sufficient to make the fair a great success This company will be here during the week beginning Monday, June 26, and closing Saturday, July 1. Over 100 people are carried by the company, and its weekly salary list is $2,500. All the attractive Oriental features that made the World's Fair "Midway" so popular are with this company, including the the World's Fair "Midway" so popular are with this company, including the Streets of Calro, (thirty people). Arabian village, Egyptian village, Turkish village and many other attractions. From Wheeling this company goes to East Liverpool, where it will be one of the principal attractions of that city's centennial celebration next July. Thence it goes to Allegheny for an engagement of two weeks. The company invariably appears under B. P. O. E. auspices. The company carries a number of camels, Arabian norses, donkeys and other animals of the Orient.

In addition to this fine attraction, there will be cight side-shows, each of which is guaranteed to be a strong attraction.

The "street fair" will be held on Chapiline street, beginning at Twentieth and extending down to Twenty-second; on Twenty-second, Chapline to Eoff; on Eoff, Twenty-second to Twenty-fourth. The booths will extend along these streets, on each side, fronting out in the street, with a fifteen foot avenue for the public. On Twenty-third, from Eoff to Jacob, and on the vacant ground between Eoff and Jacob, north of Twenty-third, the "Midway" attractions will hold forth, and a grand stand is to be built for the accommodation of the tremendous crowded which it is anticipated will be attracted to the show.

Plans and specifications for the show. Plans and specifications for the booths will be prepared shortly, and then bids will be asked for their construction. They will be roofed, and lighted by electricity. Numberless are lights will illuminate the streets at night. There will be ample police protection.

lights will illuminate the streets at night. There will be ample police protection.

It is expected that all the Wheeling merchants will take space in the booths. Aiready 1,200 feet of booth space has been asked for by merchants. The promoters will charge for booth space the bare cost of the construction and lighting. Many merchants are arranging to advertise the coming fair to their out-of-town customers.

The Wheeling Railway Company has agreed to light and wire the booths free of charge.

The lodge is arranging to give each charitable institution in une city a booth free of charge and the exclusive right for the sale of some particular article. This plan was followed in Canton last summer, and some of the charities there cleared $500. No doubt the local organizations will gladly co-operate with the Elks in the street fair here.

The promoters have secured the consent of the property owners along the streets named, and hast night council gave its permission for the occupancy of the several theroughfares.

The Elks will ask the chamber of comerce to ald in booming the fair, which that body will doubtless be glad to do, as the project will boom the city as it hasn't been boomed or advertised for a long time.

AMUSEMENTS.

The announcement by Manager Ries. matization of Barrie's charming creation, will be seen on the Opera House stage in the near future, will be received with satisfaction by the Wheeling theatre-going public. The original company, with Miss Maud Adams in the star role, has been engaged for the evening of Friday, March 3, "The nister" plays a ment at Pittsburgh next week, and several Wheeling theatre parties were forming, which will now no doubt be abandoned. Manager Riester's er prise should be liberally rewarded.

"THE CHARLATAN."

Mr. Martinez, the musical critic of the New York World, was one of those who appreciated the music written by John Philip Sousa, for his new opera, "The Charlatan," which will be presented at the Opera House, Saturday evening, February 1. He says: In none of the several comic operas which John Philip Sousa has written has he so well exhibited his musicianly abilities, as in "The Charlatan." His medodic manner throughout is pleasing. His choral writing is skillful, and the orchestration delightfully ingenious. "The Charlatan" ranks close to the high water mark in the matter of scenic and sartorial stage investiture. Russia, a rather sombre and dreary country at best, both in dress and character. In this instance yields a wealth of color and significance. De Wolf Hopper, Sousa music, Alfred Klein, Nella Bergen, Alice Judson, topical songs, brilliant dialogues, and diverting lyrics combine to make the piece an evening of delightful entertainment. Phillip Sousa, for his new opera, "The

"THE MISSOURI GIRL."

THE MISSOURI GIRL."
A comedy drama and a really good story, "The Missouri Girl." will be given at the Grand for three nights, beginning Thursday, February 2, with a matine Saturday. The play is not new to Wheeling theatre-goers; it made an excellent impression last ecason, because of its being built on the lines of the older class of melo-dramas in which consistency is observed as much as possible. Says an exchange: You laugh, scream and roar when Fred Raymond as Zeke makes his bow to the audience and you hook when he and Sadie as Dalsy, appear together. If those two lights of the council stage did nothing but appear an audience would be convulsed. Their make-up is enough to cure a fit of the blues, their acting sufficient to cause a sphinx to laugh. There is not one dull moment from the opening of the opening of the first act to the close of the fourth. The dancing of Fred and Sadie Raymond was such as to call for repeated encores. to call for repeated encores.

"THE PLAYERS."

The appearance of that sterling or ganization, the Players, in "Hare and Hounds," a highly successful comedy by the great playwright, Sydney Grun dy, at the Opera House, next Friday evening, will be the occasion of one o the two most brilliant audiences of the season, and the other was in evidence at the first play of the Players' season. "Hare and Hounds" is protected by copyright, and the management of the Players had to pay a considerable royalty for the privilege of producing the piece here. The public will no doubt appreciate this enterprise on the part of the local organization of Thespians. The seat plat is now open for reservations at House's.

The cast of characters will be as followed.

TWO STOMACHS.

The Upper for the Proteids and the Lower for the Greater Part of the Food.

It is an interesting study to observe ow the digestion of food is accomplished. The greater part of vegetable food is starch and this is never digested in the stomach proper, nor is it effected by the epsin in the upper stomach. Starch (a Carbo-hydrate) is passed out of the stomach into the duodenum or second stomach and there treated by the pancreatic juices, when in time a micro-scopic fungi is grown from a part of the grain, if that has been eaten, and these elements with moisture, heat and tir transform the startch into grape-sugar, which is the first act of digestion.

The processes are duplicated in an artificial or mechanical way in the manufacture of Grape-Nuis, the new breakfast food made by the Postum Cercal Co., Lim., of Battle Creek, Mich.

In this food one finds the delicate, sweet taste of grape-sugar and when eaten it will be found to quickly digest and fatten and strengthen the entire body.

body.

Its especial mission is to nourish and rebuild the brain and nerve centers.

A certain definite feeling of strength and stamina comes to the individual after a few days use of Grape-Nuts at brenkfast.

Being a condensed food, one does not require more than 3 to 5 teasponduls at a meal, which is worth considering from an economical standpoint.
